Activities: This week, to build our reading skills, we will be learning how to spell, write and sound out CVC and CVCe words with the vowel /a/. We will continue Spelling this week learning word families and having a test on Thursday. We will create a class book entitled An Animal Alphabet after learning about watercolors and we will do paired/shared reading with a friend every day. We will work with our vowels and practice counting by fives as we learn new songs about these skills.
